Celebrate the wonder, mystery, and beauty of the season with IM in a concert of music first heard during the season of Advent, Christmas, and New Year’s in 14th and 15th century England. This program will feature a joyous collection of songs and carols from the Selden carol book, the Ritson manuscript and others, as well as a commissioned world premiere by celebrated British composer, Ivan Moody.

HIDDEN VOICES OF RENAISSANCE ENGLAND

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2013 at 7:00pm
St Philip Neri Church
2408 SE 16th Avenue Portland, Oregon

IM will join with guest conductor and Byrd scholar, Dr. Kerry McCarthy, to present a program exploring household music of William Byrd sung by women in the English Renaissance, largely forgotten due to the private nature of the performances. Featured a cappella works will include the Mass for three voices as well as Memento salutis auctor, O gloriosa domina, Crowned with flowers and lilies, and others accompanied by keyboardist, Hannah Brewer.
