

In Mulieribus

luminous in song

(the Latin phrase meaning “amongst women”) is a female vocal ensemble dedicated to the promotion and enrichment of community through the art of music with a focus on works written primarily before 1750.

This 2020-21 season, all concert events are online, free, and available to all! Spread the word among your friends and family. On the evening of the premiere, log on to inmulieribus.org to connect to our YouTube channel where the event will air. Attendees will be able to chat live with others watching, as well as artistic director Anna Song and guests. All In Mulieribus events are being created with strict adherence to COVID safety guidelines.

2020-2021 Concert Season

Visions of Eternity

Sponsored by an Anonymous Donor

This program pairs Cycles of Eternity, a song cycle by Andrea Reinkemeyer with the striking images of northwest artist and printmaker Rita Robillard. The text, by the African-American poet Henrietta Cordelia Ray, is a meditation on the ideas of aspiration, limitations and life. "Life! Ay, what is it? E'en a moment spun from cycles of eternity."

Visions of Mystery

Sponsored by Linda Besant and Martha Goetsch

We find ourselves in an environment of stress and change. Thankfully, In Mulieribus' holiday concert is one tradition that continues. Join us for this healing contemplation and celebration of the season. Our program will feature some of your favorite music and ancient carols, presented with a new film by Ben DeMarco.

Visions of Beauty

Sponsored by Robert Lockwood and Janet Gibbens

Ah, spring! Flowers and gardens symbolize resurgence, rebirth, and beauty in the poetry of the Renaissance. In this program, the music of Machaut and others is presented with the works of two Portland-based artists: photographer Deb Stoner and animator/calligrapher Marilyn Zornado.
