Your annual giving sustains our work and creates a base of support that enables us to pursue new projects, commission new works and create new recordings.

Your contribution makes it possible to offer education programs, reduced-rate student tickets and outreach performances like those planned for Linfield College in McMinnville in March 2011 the Mt. Angel
Abbey Bach Festival in July 2011.

Every donor and dollar makes a difference-thank you!

presents

*"Heavenly voices" Portland Tribune
"A unique sound and blend"
Performance Today*

Welcome to our 2010-2011 concert series!

Now in our fourth season, In Mulieribus is breaking new boundaries and reaching new audiences with every concert. The upcoming season features two enchanting programs. Our annual winter concert will present ancient Christmas carols alongside glorious music written to celebrate other liturgical feasts in December. The second concert, inspired by a bestselling medieval book of saints, the "Legenda Aurea" (The Golden Legend), will feature sacred vocal music from the past millennium that highlights the lives and legends of holy men and women celebrated as saints.

Rich with insights into human history and culture, the magnificent treasury of ancient music is capable of edifying both the spirit and mind. We invite you to join us for both concerts as we continue to explore the beauty and transformative power of the timeless music of past generations.

Anna Song
Artistic Director & Conductor

From our inception, IM's mission has included both an artistic and philanthropic component. A portion of all concert proceeds goes to help benefit other non-profit organizations that serve our community.

We are pleased to announce our partnership with Bradley Angle for the upcoming season. The Bradley Angle mission is to offer survivors of domestic and sexual violence options for safety, empowerment, healing and hope, while collaborating with our communities to create social change. More information can be found at <http://bradleyangle.org>.
