

In Mulieribus

(the Latin phrase meaning "amongst women") is a female vocal ensemble dedicated to the promotion and enrichment of community through the art of music with a focus on works written primarily before 1750.

"I am overwhelmed by the exquisite artistry of your ensemble..."

In Mulieribus is truly a gem in the choral world.

Frank Ferko, Composer

"The true wonder of In Mulieribus' performances is the simple joy inherent in listening to these accomplished scholar-singers throw everything they have into their craft, and it never ceases to delight and amaze."

James Bash, Northwest Reverb

Please consider supporting In Mulieribus with your subscription and tax-deductible gift today.

Your gifts sustain our work and create a base of support that enables us to create extraordinary concerts, pursue new projects, craft new recordings and commission new works. Every contribution makes it possible to offer outreach performances, education programs and reduced-rate student tickets that bring the magnificent treasury of ancient music to life for audiences far and wide.

Each and every donor and dollar makes a difference - thank you!

From our inception, IM's mission has included both an artistic and philanthropic component.

Every season we sponsor a human service organization that serves our community.

We are pleased to announce our partnership with Rahab's Sisters, an organization that seeks to compassionately offer support to vulnerable women, especially those who are impacted by the sex industry, domestic violence, homelessness, substance abuse, and poverty. Please visit www.rahabs-sisters.org for more information on the work and mission of this extraordinary local organization.
